Filé Doux Collection

Filé doux, meaning without resistance, is a design collaboration between Jason Burhop and Etienne Dugal. The principle design feature of this collection is the seamless flow of vertical components to horizontal surfaces. Designed in 2016, the C401 stool, winner of the 9th edition of the Grand Prix du Design for the residential furniture category, is the cornerstone of the collection.

C401B | Stool

The latest addition to the C401 stool family is a 19 -inch chair height version that features the same semi-spherical shape that effortlessly transitions to four rounded legs. Designed with versatility in mind, the functional stool is equally suited as a side table.
