The Ulysses Contract

How to never worry about the share market again
MICHAEL KEMP

'You've lucked onto something very special by picking up this book.'
SCOTT PAPE, The Barefoot Investor

The Ulysses Contract uses the analogy of mythological hero Ulysses to warn of the 'sirens' that tempt investors to part with their money. Drawing on his own decades of investing and research into financial literature dating back hundreds of years, Michael Kemp shows how to put in place a successful investment plan that embodies discipline, consistency and patience.

Through masterful storytelling that expertly explains (and usually rejects) complex investment concepts, The Ulysses Contract demonstrates how remarkably easy it can be for anyone to develop into a capable and successful long-term investor.

Black Belt

A masterclass for start-ups and entrepreneurs

JOSEPH HEALY AND DAVID HORNERY

Black Belt is a masterclass in building a company from slide deck to 'unicorn' from the co-founders of the first commercial bank listed in Australia in 25 years.

Disillusioned with the four big Australian banks' culture and strategy, finance industry veterans Joseph Healy and David Hornery set out to disrupt and improve the banking sector. Judo Bank was launched in 2016 and listed on the Australian stock market in 2021: proof that, just as in judo, the smaller, weaker party can overpower a bigger, stronger opponent through the efficient use of energy and better strategy.

Converge

A futurist's insights into the potential of our world as technology and humanity collide

DR CATHERINE BALL

Technology and science are providing the answers to many of the challenges the world is facing today. But why are we not embracing these technologies more widely? The answer in many cases is because we don't know about them.

This thought-provoking book offers an optimistic, in-depth investigation into the possibilities of a world where humans fully embrace technology. It is also a call to action that explores the role we all have in learning more, owning the conversations and determining what we want technology to be.

The Upstander Leader

How to develop a speak-up culture

JESSICA HICKMAN

We've all heard of the bystander effect, where people see bad behaviour and do nothing. Jessica Hickman experienced this firsthand as a victim of workplace bullying over a three-year period. Her experience motivated her to encourage leaders to develop a speak-up culture in their organisations.

Bullying and bad behaviour can be found in workplaces all over the world. This has to change. This book explores the differences between bystanders and upstanders, and offers a five-step model to transform your organisation into a safe and enjoyable place where employees can thrive.

Death by Comfort

How modern life is killing us and what we can do about it

PAUL TAYLOR

Our genome has not changed in over 45,000 years, but the world has changed enormously, and there are multiple mismatches with modern life. Our ancestors braved heat and cold to hunt their prey, eating a range of natural foods and leading highly physical lives. Now, the majority of us spend most of our day sitting on our backsides, ultra-processed foods are making us overweight and sick, and our thermoneutral environments are making us soft. We are ancient genomes in a modern world, and it's not going well.

Paul Taylor explores exactly what's wrong and how we can survive and thrive in the modern world.

Curious Habits

Why we do what we do and how to change

LUKE MATHERS

If you've ever stopped after doing something you've done 100 times and thought, 'Why do I do that?', that's a curious habit. Many people blame themselves for allowing curious habits to develop unconsciously into behaviour that no longer serves them (or even becomes destructive). However, by embracing the power of curiosity, you will stop the blame and shame and be able to reset for a healthier, happier, more fulfilling life.

A natural-born, entertaining storyteller, in Curious Habits Luke Mathers will keep you hooked from the first page to the last.

Live the Life You Want with the Money You Have

The money handbook for a new generation

VINCE SCULLY

'Cut out your morning latte and you can be rich!' It's a popular view – but it's inaccurate. The truth is, that's not what's keeping you out of the housing market or preventing you from building long-term financial security. We've never earned as much, owned as much, or been so highly educated, and yet millennials struggle with money more than any previous generation. Why? Because the old rules just don't work anymore.

Leading financial planner Vince Scully shows you the new way that anyone can start right away, no matter how much money they have or how much debt they're in.

A Fraction Stronger

Finding belief and possibility in life's impossible moments

MARK BERRIDGE

An inspiring story of one man's survival after a life-changing accident, and how to find possibility in life's darkest moments.

This is not a story about winning, or miracles. It's about an everyday person who visualised an exceptional outcome. It's about reframing our demons into sources of motivation, and accepting support from the most unlikely places. It's about how we choose to get up. The world is full of possibility if we choose to explore it. Mark found the power within to become a fraction stronger every day. And others can, too.
