

9 Essential Skills for the Love and Logic Classroom® Facilitator Training Agenda

Charles Fay, Ph.D., and Jim Fay
July 13 – 15, 2020

Monday July 13th

- 8:00–8:30 Registration
- 8:30–9:00 Introduction to Love and Logic: The Five Principles
- An alternative to anger, lectures, threats, and bribes
 - Two rules sum it up
- 9:00–9:30 The Love and Logic Classroom Plan
- It's about problem solving—not punishment
 - It's about empowering students toward self-control
- 9:30–9:45 Break
- 9:45–10:45 Love and Logic Skills
- Neutralizing Arguing
 - Building Positive Relationships
- 10:45–11:30 Love and Logic Skill
- Sincere Empathy
- 11:30–12:45 Lunch
- 12:45–2:00 Love and Logic Skills
- Using Delayed Consequences
 - Guiding Students to Own and Solve Their Problems
- 2:00–2:15 Break
- 2:15–3:30 Understanding the Legalities and Logistics of Facilitating Curricula
- Copyright and trademark requirements
 - Sequencing and length of the sessions
 - Other questions

Tuesday July 14th

8:30–9:45 Love and Logic Skills

- Setting Limits with Enforceable Statements
- Reducing Power Struggles by Sharing Control Within Limits

9:30–9:45 Break

9:45–11:30 Love and Logic Skills

- Quick and Easy Preventative Interventions

11:30–12:45 Lunch

12:45–1:30 Love and Logic Skills

- Preserving the Learning Environment when Students won't Allow You to Teach
- When Multiple Students are Involved in a Disruption

1:30–2:00 Specific Solutions for When a Student is

- disrupting the class by talking
- causing a problem with their phone or some other device
- unprepared for class—often

2:00–2:15 Break

2:15–3:30 Specific Solutions for When a Student is

- often tardy
- being teased or bullied
- refusing to complete their work
- unhappy with their grade

Wednesday July 15th

8:30–9:45 The Science of Motivation: Reaching Underachievers

- The roots of achievement motivation
- How the brain responds to anxiety, stress, and trauma
- A specific action plan

9:45–10:00 Break

10:00–11:00 Gaining Buy-In from Your Team

- The science of resistance
- Creating a Love and Logic school culture

11:00–12:00 Working with Challenging Parents

- The role of grief and loss
- A process that every educator should know