Love and Logic Releases the Love and Logic Blog
Insight to Help Parents & Educators Build Healthy Relationships with Their Kids

Golden, CO: Love and Logic Institute, Inc. is proud to announce the release of the Love and Logic Blog. The Love and Logic Blog provides practical skills every parent and educator can use in their daily interactions with kids. Readers will find useful tips, techniques and skills for the challenges their children bring up.

The Love and Logic Blog helps parents and educators foster positive relationships with the kids in their lives. The information shared within this blog has already made a positive impact on those who have discovered the blog. One educator said, "Thank you so much for your way of discipline! I've been teaching for almost 20 years and this is the first time I didn't go home angry, frustrated and completely drained!" Love and Logic President Charles Fay described the blog as "a great resource for people looking for ways to get some help with their kids." Another reader, a parent, shared, "Love and Logic has given me the tools I needed to fulfill my role as a parent of two boys!"

Parents and educators will find solutions for many of the issues they face in an ever-changing world. Some of the topics covered include:

- Bullying
- Defiance at Home and School
- Technology Use
- Sibling Rivalry
- Underachievement at School
- Success with Strong-Willed Kids
- And Much, Much More!

The Love and Logic Blog can be found by visiting this link or at the top of our homepage www.loveandlogic.com.

About Love and Logic Institute

Trusted for over 40 years, Love and Logic is a philosophy founded in 1977 by Jim Fay and Foster W. Cline, M.D. It is the approach of choice among leading educators, parents, and other professionals worldwide.

The Love and Logic Institute is dedicated to making parenting and teaching fun and rewarding, instead of stressful and chaotic. We provide practical tools and techniques that help adults achieve respectful, healthy relationships with their children. All of our work is based on a psychologically sound parenting and teaching philosophy called Love and Logic.
