*Due to a shortage of beer we had to split this shipment in two. Some will have received the Helles and some will have received the Diamond Park.

SERENDIPITOUS

Sour Ale

4.2%

When originally brewed, the tartness wasn't exactly as expected, so the decision was made to add hops to this sour ale. The result was a surprisingly fruity and mildly tart beer that originally started as something completely different. This recipe is now used as a blank canvas to add all manner of different flavours, each version is slightly different than the last.

Legend has it that in order to see the shy Wolpertinger, one must enjoy a lot of beer, namely this amber lagered ale that has been brewed for hundreds of years. It is smooth with a toasty, nutty character, an assertive bitterness and a dry finish. Prosit!
