ESCVDO

Origen FW24

FOR THE FIRST TIME, ESCVDO INTRODUCES A COLLECTION INSPIRED BY PERU'S MOST REPRESENTATIVE CULTURE, THE INCA EMPIRE. DUE TO THE VASTNESS OF THEIR CONQUERED TERRITORY, INCA CULTURE WAS INFLUENCED BY DIVERSE SOCIETIES OF THE ANDES AND OF THE COAST. ORIGEN FW24 IS ESCVDO'S FIRST EXPLORATION OF THIS HERITAGE, AND FOLLOWS ON HOW THE ART AND CRAFTSMANSHIP OF THE INCAS CARRIED THE KNOWLEDGE OF A MORE ANCIENT PERU, AND MANAGED TO ELEVATE IT THROUGH CURIOSITY AND CONSTANT INNOVATION.

This collection has been photographed at CASA TALLER CHULLPAS, private residence created by Peruvian architect LUIS LONGHI.

SIEMBRA CARDIGAN

MARIANA DRESS

Origen FW24

Luis, a world renowned architect, shares with the Incas a preoccupation for building in harmony with the natural environment as well as for a design that builds to commemorate life-shaping events.

The collection builds a palette that highlights the Empire's relationship to the natural world, as well as their proneness for geometrical and symmetrical iconography that followed the mathematics of nature.
