

RV Camping Checklist

Going on an epic RV adventure road trip can be the experience of a lifetime. But with so much to pack it's easy to forget something. Use this handy checklist as a guide to help you remember to bring the things you need!

Before Departure

- Make sure RV is roadworthy
- Verify registration and insurance is up-to-date
- Confirm AAA coverage is active
- Reserve campsites or familiarize yourself with reservation process ahead of time
- Watch weather forecast to plan for re-routes
- Inform friends and family of travel plans

Basic RV Equipment

- Jack
- Spare tire
- Wheel chocks
- Jumper cables
- Generator
- Freshwater tank
- Solar panels
- Greywater tank
- Blackwater tank
- Hoses

Person Hygiene / Health

- Toothbrush
- Toilet paper
- Shampoo & soaps
- Medications
- Insect repellent
- Sunscreen
- Pain relievers
- Glasses, contacts & lens cleaner

Pet Supplies

- Plenty of pet food
- Treats & toys
- Water dish
- Portable water dish for hikes
- Leash & harness

Food & Kitchen Supplies

- Basics: salt, pepper, sugar, butter, spices, and seasonings
- Meal plans
- Pack Mountain House® for quick, hassle-free meals
- Can opener
- Corkscrew
- Grill

Camping Equipment

- Flashlights, headlamps & lanterns
- Knife or multi-purpose tool
- Hatchet or axe

Emergency Supplies

- Well-stocked first aid kit
- Extra blankets
- Fire-starting equipment in a waterproof container
- Flashlight
- Backup batteries
- Extra food like Mountain House Just in Case...® Kits

Clothing

- Extra layers for mornings and unexpected cold-snaps
- Rain gear
- Sun gear: wide-brimmed hats, sunglasses and uv-protective outerwear
- Clothing appropriate for the season and destination
- Clothing for the odd night on the town

Right Before Departure

- Stop the mail
- Lock the doors
- Hire someone for lawn care if you're going to be gone for several weeks