

PROVIDENCE ROAD

Shiraz 2018

Frankland River Western Australia

COLOUR

Dark ruby red.

NOSE

Floral notes with lifted aromas of mulberry and spice.

PALATE

Flavours of red cherries, mulberries and liquorice. Fine tannins fill the palate to give a long savoury finish.

WINEMAKING

The 2018 Shiraz fruit was harvested ensuring perfect sugar, acid and tannin ripeness was achieved. The fruit was brought into the winery and fermentation started. Once fermentation was completed, the wine was gently pressed off the skins, transferred to oak and allowed to complete malolactic fermentation in a mix of new and seasoned French oak barriques. Following 10 months maturation in the barriques, all barrels were blended and create this perfect example of a Frankland River Shiraz.

FOOD PAIRING

Slow cooked lamb with seasonal greens.

VINTAGE NOTES

A superb vintage with perfect growing conditions throughout Spring. This ensured the development of healthy canopies, setting the vineyard up beautifully for the rest of the season. Mild, temperate conditions continued allowing the fruit to ripen perfectly, displaying pristine fruit quality with an abundance of flavour intensity, natural acid and sugar balance.
