

IN OUR NEW COLUMN HE ATE, SHE ATE ROB GENTILE & IVANA RACA LOCK HORNS OVER T.O.'S BEST ITALIAN SANDWICHES

THE POST

NORTH TORONTO

12th ANNUAL REAL ESTATE ROUNDTABLE

2019 PANEILLISTS

SEBASTIAN CLOVIS
BARRY COHEN
BRIAN GLUCKSTEIN
LU HAN
MICHAEL KALLES
JENNIFER KEESMAAT
BRAD LAMB
MARYAM MANSOURI HURST
MICHELE ROMANOW
BENJAMIN TAL

THE PLANNER

THE DESIGN
KING

THE DRAGON

THE HGTV
HOST

JENNIFER KEESMAAT, BRIAN GLUCKSTEIN, MICHELE ROMANOW, SEBASTIAN CLOVIS AND SIX MORE HOUSING HEAVYWEIGHTS ON THE RIGHT AND WRONG MOVES TO MAKE THIS SPRING

THANKS FOR SAYING YOU SAW IT IN THE POST

APRIL 2019 · VOLUME 25 · ISSUE 9

PUT A SPRING IN YOUR STEP

At last, sunshine is here and the snow is melting (or maybe even ... melted?). So we asked Jeanne Beker to pick her favourite footwear trends for this season — from slip-on mules to square toes and sculpted heels right off the spring/summer runways.

MULES

▲ TEXTUR-RIFIC

Officine Creative at Gravitylope, 1010 Queen St. W., $580, "What a lovely fabric. They look like they've been distressed, and it's a nice alternative to a metallic."

◀ TASSEL TIME

Ron White Shoes, Bayview Village, $595, "I love the tassels and the beautiful elongated toe. It's a very rich look, very classy but unusual. Ron White just has such a great attention to the construction of his shoes."

▲ NEON DREAMS

Aldo, Promenade mall, $95, "The neon fruit shades are so appealing for spring. This is a true stiletto, very sexy. They would be a great punctuation mark on any outfit."

STUDED SLIPPER ▼

Steve Madden at Sporting Life, 2665 Yonge St., $109.99, "I love these little studded ones, and they're on suede. They're easy peasy, just slide into them. They're a great little shoe."

SQUARE TOE

LOVELY LILAC ▶

L'Intervalle, Eaton Centre, $228, "They're obviously beautifully styled, very elegant, very sleek. Absolutely beautiful lavender colour, which is the big colour of the season, and they're very of the moment."

▼ LUXE LOAFER

Gucci at Holt Renfrew, 50 Bloor St. W., $1,370, "These appeal to me because of this heel with the pearl and stud detailing, and the nice square toe that gives you solid footing."

▼ OFF TO THE BALLET

Nicholas Kirkwood at Davids, 66 Bloor St. W., $1,020, "A new take on a traditional ballet slipper. You've got this great pearl toggle at the back, very chic and very feminine."

PRETTY IN PINK ▼

Nicholas Kirkwood at Davids, 66 Bloor St. W., $880, "A great colour, that's what's attracting me the most, and the beautiful detailing around the heel. They look dressy."

UNIQUE HEELS

STEP INTO STRIPES ▶

John Fluevog, 686 Queen St. W., $369, "These look like something a new wave wicked witch of the west would wear. There's a lot of whimsy to these shoes."

◀ EMERALD CITY

L'Intervalle, Eaton Centre, $168, "These are sensational. A great faux croc in a beautiful shade of green. A great toe that's very sexy, and the heel just makes it look so artful."

WELL-HEELED ▼

See by Chloe at Studio D, 2570 Yonge St., $565, "This heel is so artful it almost looks like a fancy parquet floor, and it's made of leather."

▼ COOL CUT-OUT

Vic Matie at Gravitylope, 1010 Queen St. W., $465, "These are a beautiful, blush-coloured shoe, with the most beautiful heel, so interesting and so design conscious."

