

Be swept off your feet at The Foot Shoppe

Toronto's new flagship store at the Manulife Centre is an oasis from the stress and chaos of everyday life. It offers a unique pampering experience, while providing a relaxing environment to check out the best in fashionable and comfortable footwear imported from around the world. Clients at The Foot Shoppe will be catered to in a spa-like environment that will make the shoe-shopping experience relaxing and enjoyable. Upon entering the store, clients are invited to sit down in the beautiful antique chairs, and to view the latest shoes displayed in the custom cabinetry. They will be offered refreshments as they make their shoe
