Made for walkin'

We select this season's buzzworthy boots from the catwalk and the red carpet

Flat, stacked or stiletto-heeled, patent, suede or fabric, this season's array of boots is seemingly endless. Styles range from '80s-inspired ankle boots to sleek thigh-high numbers. Keep in mind your own height when buying the perfect pair. Ultra-long, skinny legs can carry off ankle boots with a skirt, but the rest of us should stick to a more elongating length. The good news is that it's de rigueur to pair your boots with almost everything in your closet – from cropped pants and skinny jeans all the way up to a slinky dress.
