THE ALLURE OF SUMMER

A photograph of a swimming pool area. In the foreground, a large, clear blue swimming pool is visible. To the right of the pool, there are several lounge chairs with white cushions. In the middle ground, there is a decorative archway with a lattice pattern and a central fountain. The background features lush green trees and a classical building with columns.

"THIS HOUSE IS ABOUT FORMAL AND INFORMAL, ELEGANT AND RUSTIC, DRESSED UP AND DRESSED DOWN," KASLER SAYS.

Right: A whitewashed-oak ceiling caps the master bedroom, which is painted in a Benjamin Moore off-white. The bed's coverlet and pillowcases are by Leontine Linens, as is the large square pillow on the settee. The chandelier and floor lamp are both Kasler designs for Circa Lighting, and the table lamp is by Christopher Spitzmiller. The curtains are of a J. Robert Scott silk.

In a guest room at the Palm Beach pavilion, a Gracie wallpaper provides a chinoiserie note. The chandelier is by Vaughan, the John Rosselli & Assoc. bed is dressed in D. Porthault linens, the mirrored bedside cabinets are by Nancy Corzine, and the pagoda lamp is from C. Bell. Beneath a mirror from R. Louis Bofferding Decorative & Fine Art stands a chest of drawers by Brunschwig & Fils topped with Christopher Spitzmuller lamps. On the custom-made chaise longue is a throw from Trellage; the carpeting is by Stark.
