REDLANDS TO CELEBRATE FIRST-EVER PRIDE EVENT

We're so excited to be hosting the inaugural PRIDE festival in Redlands. We will be celebrating in Ed Hales Park on Saturday, July 27 from 4-7pm as well as the Augie's Patio (downtown). We expect about 400-500 people to attend throughout the event.

We have bands, singer/songwriters, entertainers, games, and more!

Speakers will include City Councilor Denise Davis and Abigail Medina, Executive Director of the Inland Region Equality Network. Local bands, Hoity Toity and Thic Hums will be headlining.

The event welcomes all of the LGBTQ community as well as Allies of all ages!

There will be an after-party at The Vault, and many businesses around town will participating with menu items that are pride-themed.

Sponsors for the event include: Augie's Coffee, Stell Coffee & Tea Company, The Vault, Kith, My Generation, and Redlands for Progressive Change

There 13 people who participated in planning on some level. For more information, you can also email Dc Lozano at dclozano22@gmail.com
