The BNutty Story

Carol and Joy used to be your average soccer moms, until Joy came up with an unexpected solution for raising money for their boys' teams: she'd been making deliciously flavored peanut butter from scratch using healthy ingredients.

The peanut butter became a big hit, and Joy asked Carol to go into business with her after giving her a jar to help her think it over. As Carol watched the boys play soccer, she ate her first spoonful of what would become Bnutty Peanut Butter—and the rest was history!

Flash forward seven years through farmers markets and opening "The Nuthouse" to Bnutty: the premiere gourmet peanut butter that comes in loads of nutty flavors. It's truly the perfect butter-for-you snack!
