

Isabella Oliver

BAUKJEN

Job Title:	Garment Technologist
Salary:	Dependent on experience
Job Type:	Full Time
Reporting to:	Head of Production & Development

We are looking for a talented Garment Technologist to join the team.

Isabella Oliver is an award winning maternity brand that sits alongside its womenswear sister brand, Baukjen, which was launched in 2012.

You will work closely with the Designers, a Pattern Cutter, seamstress and our Product Developer from initial concept to production. This will include initial fitting of toiles, first fit and production approval. With regular fit meetings, design meetings and daily correspondence with the suppliers.

Looking for someone:

- Technically able
 - Garment construction
 - Strong knowledge of all fabrics
 - Pattern cutting knowledge
 - Create a spec from scratch or a pattern
 - Grade a spec and pattern
 - Multi product from Outerwear, Tailoring, Knitwear, wovens and jersey to leather Accessories
 - Strong manufacturing knowledge
 - Care labels
- Excellent communication skills
- Build great internal and external relationships.
- Highly organised, confident, proactive, good at problem solving and, with an attention to detail
- Work with the team to produce a seasonal Ranges for both brands and working on OTB in-season.
- Work to a critical path to ensure all products are delivered on-time.
- Meet project deadlines

Essential Skills and Requirements:

- Organise and run the weekly fit meetings
- Create and maintain technical packs
- Approve all fits, construction and trims
- Issue and approve graded specifications
- Strong interest in sustainability
- Analysing risks of all new styles
- Work with the in-house pattern cutter or the factories to produce a garments that meet customer expectations for fit and performance
- Develop new fits and blocks
- Test report approvals
- Quality control
- Analysis product returns
- Ordering labels, trims and fabric
- All care labels development and approval
- Factory auditing
- Ensure that the factories are adhering to the Supplier Manual and CSR document
- Prepare commodity codes for export

General

- Good with Excel, PowerPoint and Outlook
- Liaise with customer services about new product, returns and questions from customers
- Arranging wearer trial where appropriate
- Possible travel to suppliers in Europe
- Hands on approach
- Team work

Contract Type: Full Term Contract

Remuneration and employment terms

- Salary: Depending on experience
- Hours: 8:45 am – 5:30pm
- Location: North London, Kentish Town Tube

Please email CVs to: Opportunities@IsabellaOliver.com