A big hand means we don't see why things are happening. What can you see in your life that you did not understand at the time, and understood later?

Is anti-semitism good?

Compare physical slavery to physical freedom and spiritual slavery to spiritual freedom.

The גמרא says that we should start off with גנות (something degrading) and end with שבח (praise). Are you proud of your past? Did your failures make you who you are today?

We are more free than any generation in history, we have more ability, every store has everything, we have Amazon. If you have a lot of money, but can't stop checking your account, or if you can't stop checking how many likes you have on Facebook, ARE YOU REALLY FREE?

Freedom is the ability to say enough, דיין.

We should celebrate freedom with good things. Why do we include מרור in the night of freedom? We have to realize that מרור is also good. That is why we cover our eyes for שמע, to show we don't understand. What things do we have that seem bitter, but are really good?

Can you be in bondage, and be spiritually free? Do you choose your freedom?

Discuss your own personal difficulties, (losing money, not making a team, sharing a room, having a small house) and how we overcame them. How they helped us.

Are we perfect? Are we supposed to be perfect? Our kids need to hear our struggles. What is wrong with being a slave?

Can you be in traffic and think you are free?

Can you be on a delayed plane and be free?
