"Wisdom is a tree of life to those who take hold of her."

Proverbs 3:18

In All Things, Glorify God Through Jesus Christ

The Authority & Power Behind Words

As far back as I can remember, I have always enjoyed writing inspirational prose and poetry. However, I only wrote as a hobby and an outlet. But late one night in the fall of 2001, everything about my writing changed after I heard the audible voice of God call out my name...

Shortly thereafter, I began to receive inspired poems and messages that ministered to me on subjects pertaining to life, love and loss. These messages came when I least expected them causing me to keep a notepad and pencil with me at all times. As some would record their thoughts in a diary, I kept a journal and filled it with these poems and messages.

For years my husband urged me to share my work with others as a ministry. However, at the time, I disagreed for I felt that would be too invasive. My writings were deeply personal as they spoke of my life, my loves and my loss. Yet, as the Lord would have it, that decision changed after seeing one of my poems minister to a someone other than myself.

Over the years, the Lord has taught me to better understand and appreciate the authority and power that stands behind our words. It is written: "So shall My word be that goes forth from My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and It shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it." Isaiah 55:11

When God inspires us to speak, either audibly or in written form, we are sending forth His word which shall not return to Him void, but it shall accomplish what He pleases, and It shall prosper in the thing for which He sent it.

May the inspired messages within this book be a blessing to all who read them.

"The very words I have spoken to you are Spirit and Life."

John 6:63

The Power Of Inspiration

When God reveals His sovereign majesty and power, He inspires His people...
When we reveal God through our life-changing testimonies, we inspire the world...

Inspiration is what happens when we are moved to believe in extraordinary possibilities that ordinarily seem impossible. Inspiration feeds our faith and restores the hope that keeps us pushing past obstacles and enables us to move forward. When we inspire others, we lift people up above their natural circumstances and they are moved to take action. It is in that place of action that God meets us. It is there that we see the wondrous and the miraculous take place...

"I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in Him. Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit."

Romans 15:13

A Circle Of Fire

We all have a part to play in God's Kingdom plan. The Lord has called every Believer a unique responsibility to make a world of difference on Earth - one person at a time. No, we are not held responsible for all the people in the world but we are held responsible to all the people God has placed around us. With each person you touch, the Lord is creating a powerful Circle of Fire for Jesus...

Nothing in this world happens by accident and there is no such thing as a coincidence. God is sovereign... He is a Holy Supreme Being. He created this world and He is the One Ruler who reigns over it all. God is omnipresent... He sees everything and His presence is everywhere. He is in our past, present and future - all at the same time. God is omniscient... He is the embodiment of all knowledge and all wisdom. He is forever all-knowing. Is all of this too much for you to comprehend? Of course it is. That is why you are you and God is God.

There is a reason for everything that happens to us. Every single experience we go through - the good and the bad - has been ordained by God. Everything has to pass through His hands. This does not mean God causes bad things to happen, but it does mean God has to allow it before it can happen. Why?

God does not control the people in the world. He has given us free will to make our own decisions - even when it leads to our own detriment. Therefore when the evil in this world influences people to make bad decisions, it is their decisions that bring about the negative consequences. There are also people in the world who embrace evil. They intentionally set out to do the will of our enemy which is to kill, steal and destroy. Yet even though we all make the decisions to do what we do, God is still in control. Miraculously, He is working it all in together to cause His perfect will to come to past

This is a hard truth for some of us to accept. However, we must remember that God's ways are not our ways and His understanding of things is not the way we understand things. It will serve us well to just accept the fact that God is God, and we must do this one day at a time.

At times when things are going wrong for us, Believers can find solace in God's word which tells us "all things work together for good to those who love God, to those who are called according to His purpose." Romans 8:28

Our life is a burden that we do not have to carry. God is perfectly capable of managing this world - and every person in it. He's got this. However, for all to go well with us, we must be mindful to seek, trust, listen and obey Him - no matter what. When God allows us to go through things, know that there is always a reason for it and there is always a lesson in it.

This is also true where it concerns the people in our lives. God allows certain people to come into our lives and to cross our path - for a reason. We are not always happy with the people we have in our lives. But God has predetermined that they will serve a purpose. We don't always like the family we are born into. In fact, many may say, "If it were up to me, I wouldn't have chose them." Well, maybe not. But God did and He knows better. Nothing happens unintentionally. There is a select group of people that the Lord has purposely placed around you. Some of us have small groups while others may have larger groups. Nevertheless, these people are not in our life by accident. They are here by God's design.

God is a relational God. He desires intimacy and interaction with His children. He does not need our help to do anything but by His grace He chooses to work with us and through us to bring about His mighty Kingdom plan. Therefore, He has given each of us a very important job to do. Some will serve for the good of that plan while others will serve evil. Either way, God uses everyone. If you've ever wondered why you were born, know that it was not by accident or coincidence. You were placed here for a very specific reason. God has a plan for you and if you choose to not walk in the plan He has for you, it won't get done. God also has a plan for everyone else as well. The people God has placed around you are a part of your plan and you are a part of theirs. You may not know how this plan will come together, but it will in God's perfect timing.

Everyone's life has been intricately weaved together for a purpose. As you do your part, you are furthering God's plan for this world. In the process, you are also helping to create a powerful Circle of Fire for Jesus. With your active participation, you will help to form a strong band of people who are - or someday will be - on fire for Jesus! Who are these people that make up your circle of fire? They include the people in your family, the people in your church, your friends, your co-workers, your employees, your doctors and even the people you randomly meet on the street.

The world, by way of the enemy, has deceived you. It tries to convince you that life, as you know it, is all about you and what you can get out of it. This may be so for those who do not have the hope of Jesus, as for them this life is all they will ever have. But, if you are a follower of Jesus, your life should be all about Him. Yes, we are in this world and we are to live life while we are here, but we must remember why God saved us. It is all for the cause of Christ Jesus.

Everyone you know needs to know the Lord. Their life will be depending on it. Although it is not our job to force God's word, it is our job to share God's word for it is the only gift they will be offered to them that can guarantee them hope and salvation. We are in partnership with the Lord and He has given us gifts and talents that enable us to do the job. Some of us will plant the seed while others will water it and God will cause the growth.

God's desire is that all would be saved and that none should perish. However, we know that not everyone will come to the Lord. This may very well include some of the people in your life. The Bible tells us that the path that leads to Him is very narrow while the gate that leads to destruction is broad. It is not your responsibility to decide who will come and who will not. Only God truly knows what is in the heart. Not everyone you think is saved, is truly saved and not everyone you think is lost, is truly lost. So, we must approach everyone as if their life is depending on it, because it is.

People are dying every day and every day people will continue to die. When our time comes to leave this world, we will not be able to take anyone with us. But we can do our part while we're still here by sharing the good news about Jesus. Everyone will have the chance to make a personal decision for Jesus. But they won't know about Jesus if they don't hear about Jesus first.

As a Christian, you have been assigned a ministry on this Earth. God has chosen you and qualified you for the work. You are a living recipient of His grace, mercy and love. You have an amazing testimony to share. Every Believer has one.

Our testimonies consist of our unique walk with the Lord and is a witness to the existence and power of Jesus Christ. People need to know that God is real and only through Jesus can they know Him. By all means, your story must be shared with others. The Bible tells us God's people "overcame him (Satan) by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives to the death." Revelation 12:11

Jesus is waiting on us. No one can share your story but you. There are details about your experience that will speak to those who will only receive you. Your words are powerful. They hold the secret to Life and death. What you have to share could very well help someone make a decision that will determine where they will spend their eternity. The Bible tells us that "this gospel of the Kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come." Matthew 24:14

People want hope and peace. Everyone needs to know the only way they will receive hope and peace is through Jesus.

“Declare His glory among the nations, His wonders among all peoples.”
