

ANIMALS IN MY GARDEN

A vibrant and richly textured counting board book that will engage toddlers to learn about Australian animals through its enchanting and playful style

Bronwyn Houston makes counting from one to ten so much fun! From kookaburras to ants to dragonflies, her rich colourful illustrations are filled with texture and movement.

Well-suited to the Australian Curriculum for early childhood, each single page of this classically designed board book features numbers and words on a bright backdrop that will captivate and delight both children and adults.

Destined to be a counting Australian classic, Animals in my Garden introduces the diverse animals of Australia to toddlers in an entertaining and joyful way.

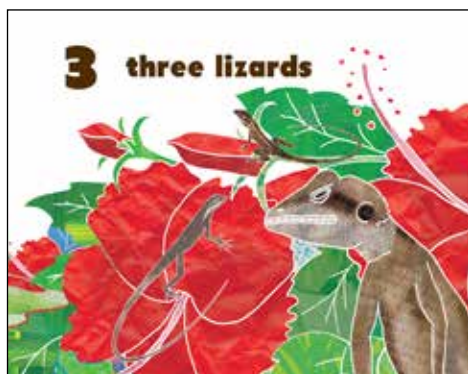

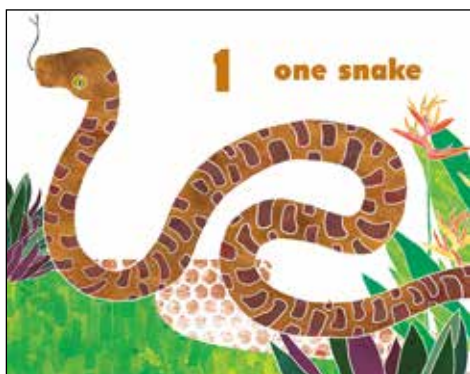

About the author and illustrator

Bronwyn Houston is descended from the Nyiyaparli and Yindjibarndi people in the Pilbara region of Western Australia. She lives in Broome with her husband and three children.

Bronwyn finds inspiration from the landscape and colours of Broome, and the natural world of the Kimberley region, where she was born.

A talented author and artist, Bronwyn has also created Loongie the Greedy Crocodile with Kiefer and Lucy Dann (2008), Staircase to the Moon (2010), My Home Broome with Tamzyne Richardson and friends (2011), Counting Aussie Animals in my Backyard (2014) and Return of the Dinosaurs (2016).

Available October 2016 in all good bookshops and online from Magabala Books RRP $9.99.

Launched in 1987, Magabala Books is a not-for-profit publishing house that aims to promote, preserve and publish Indigenous Australian culture.
