

IN THE BUSH I SEE

Introducing the fourth release of our 'Young Art' board book series showcasing the work of young Indigenous artists

In the Bush I See is a playful ensemble of Australian creatures, and an exciting illustrative debut from teenage artist, Kiara Honeychurch. Hailing from Tasmania, Kiara is inspired by the bush creatures she encounters in her rural home out of Hobart.

With bold and sophisticated pops of colour, Kiara unleashes the beauty and character of each creature and reimagines its unpredictable tones in a changing light from sunrise to sunset.

Kiara's warm and creative understanding of the animals she sees is a lively showcase of her talent. This board book for Early Childhood will capture the hearts of young readers and readers young at heart.

Kiara Honeychurch

Kiara Honeychurch was born in Broome in the far north of Western Australia. She is descended from the Wunna Nyiyaparli people of the Pilbara. Kiara now lives with her family in a rural community not far from Hobart in Tasmania where she attends high school. Kiara has been passionate about art from an early age. She is dedicated to developing her craft as a free form and digital artist.
