

RETURN OF THE DINOSAURS

A wonderfully charming and graphically vibrant children's story that imagines what dinosaurs would do if they returned to the stunning shores of Broome

A long time ago, dinosaurs lived around the Kimberley coast and their ancient footprints can still be found.

*Imagine if dinosaurs came back to visit Broome!
What would they do?*

Return of the Dinosaurs presents an amusing and imaginative look at what life would be like for dinosaurs today if they reappeared at Broome's iconic landmarks. Reflecting the famous colours of north west Australia and its rugged environment, the richly textured collage layers of artwork in this clever 'what if' tale capture the character and beauty of the many dinosaurs, birds, and marine life that roamed the Kimberley coastline more than 130 million years ago.

With graphically vibrant illustrations that skillfully render the scale of giants such as the Brachiosaurus, Ceratosaurus, Parasaurolophus and Stegosaurus – complemented by witty commentary throughout – Return of the Dinosaurs fashions a gloriously entertaining and visually captivating story for early to middle readers that portrays these prehistoric creatures as curious and fun-loving in nature.
