Note: Please make sure to obtain RMA# before shipping any defective/exchange products. If you ship any defective items without RMA#, we have the right to refuse any package and have it shipped back to original sender. Make sure to write your RMA outside the main box. We highly suggest having 100% full insurance value on ANY of the items you ship back to us. JAG Precision will not be liable for any product/s lost/delayed/stolen/damage during transit.
