Features of the NEUSPEED® Stainless Steel P-Flo air intake system, is that stainless steel reflects heat away from the air filter, and along with its hi-tech looks, it will never rust!

1. Unplug Mass Air Flow (MAF) sensor wire. Squeeze spring clamp that holds the air intake hose to the MAF sensor, and pull hose off MAF. If air pump equipped, disconnect one-inch diameter plastic hose on side of air filter housing by squeezing ring around fitting and pull off.

2. Remove the two screws on back side of air filter housing and lift off top cover. Then remove the two bolts (10mm) located at front and back of lower portion of air filter housing and remove.

3. Using the supplied bolts and nyloc nuts (7/16"), attach the MAF to the outside of the P-Flo bracket with the electrical connector facing toward the front. If air pump equipped, install the K&N mini filter at this time to the billet aluminum fitting on the inside of the P-Flo bracket.

4. Install the completed assembly using the stock bolts (10mm) thru mounting tabs at front and rear locations. Then with washer on remaining bolt and nyloc nut (7/16"), attach the air intake resonator chamber to mounting tab (if equipped). Re-clamp the air intake hose to the MAF sensor.

5. If air pump equipped, connect air pump hose to our special billet aluminum factory style fitting -- it just snaps on like factory.

6. Install K&N filter with angle towards the rear of vehicle and tighten clamp. NOTE: Recheck tightness of clamps one week later.

7. Carefully double-check complete installation. TEST DRIVE CAREFULLY!
