

Sales Policy

SuperSpeed is committed to providing high levels of product satisfaction to consumers purchasing its golf products. SuperSpeed sells its products to retailers who share this view, who provide superior customer service and education, and who promote SuperSpeed's superior product image. Re-sellers should provide superior service to compliment SuperSpeed's market leading Overspeed training devices. SuperSpeed stresses this is a unilateral policy and sellers must make their own decision whether to comply. SuperSpeed does not accept agreements to comply with policy and no representative of SuperSpeed is permitted to make agreements. Any attempt to make an agreement concerning these policies should be reported to SuperSpeed to protect the image of SuperSpeed products and to support retailers' efforts to provide the services, education and promotion desired by SuperSpeed. SuperSpeed has established the following sales policy:

1. Resellers are required to sell SuperSpeed products at the Minimum Advertised Pricing (Article I) provided.
2. SuperSpeed will discontinue the sale of its products to resellers who:

 - Fail to follow SuperSpeed's guidelines for proper trademark usage.
 - Utilize any non-traditional channel of distribution other than a personal website (i.e., catalog, internet, or non-local magazine) without prior written approval from an employee or an owner of SuperSpeed.

 - Fail to provide an appropriate, attractive facility for consumers to view and test SuperSpeed products if applicable.
 - Fail to follow any SuperSpeed return, repair, or warranty policy (Article II).
3. SuperSpeed has determined advertising to include, but is not limited to, any displayed price contained in a printed advertisement, or any price that can be printed from a computer web page or email correspondence. If there is any indication that a selected product may be purchased for a price below the minimum advertised price, SuperSpeed will consider it a violation of the policy. Internet violation examples include:
 - Any advertisements for SuperSpeed products that refer to prices less than minimum advertised prices listed in the "SuperSpeed Product Catalog and/or Price List".

 - Online Listings showing "prices too low to mention" or "move to shopping cart for price"
4. This sales policy does not form a contract and shall not be construed as distributorship, dealership, or franchise agreement. The relationship between SuperSpeed and resellers is solely that of seller and purchaser, and SuperSpeed retains the absolute discretion (1) to refuse to do business with any persons and (2) to choose the persons to whom it sells its products, for any reasons, including but not limited to those set forth above paragraph 2.
5. All prices are subject to change without notice.
