Welcome To Our 2022 Catalog

As we look back at 2020, we certainly can say it was a challenging twelve months. For us, however, it is not only about social distancing, hand sanitizers, or lockdowns, the pandemic has taught us to cherish the little things that we took for granted- the ability to hug a friend, spend more with family, enjoy the beauty of nature, attending events and many other things.

We've decided to kick-start 2021 & now 2022 the right way. Our talented team has carefully selected the most eye-catching and timeless items to fill your home-from sofas, coffee tables, to dining chairs and ceiling lamps. La Vida is a place where we make your vision turn into a reality.

Do you require help in creating your ultimate dream home? We got your back! Get your consultation with our interior design team.

A modern living room featuring a brown tufted sofa with dark leather pillows and a cream-colored fringed blanket. A large green potted plant stands behind the sofa. A chandelier with multiple glowing glass bulbs hangs from the ceiling. In the foreground, there are three dark wood coffee tables with glass tops. To the left, a wooden side table holds decorative items. Large windows on the right offer a view of a suburban neighborhood.

Dining Room Collection

A great host knows the amount of hard work that goes into planning an exceptional dinner. From the guest list, flower arrangements to menu planning and table set up. However, don't forget to create an ever more stylish ambience with the help of these beautiful pieces.

Agean Teal

Want to awaken creative energy in your home? Then Agean Teal color is the way to go. You can feature Agean Teal hues in your decorative pillows, a statement armchair, and for the daring ones out there, the color will be a wonderful option for a wall.

Color Mania 2021

After a challenging year, Pantone announced the color trends for 2021 which will be dominating the scene- Ultimate Grey is one of them. The color may not have its own "personality" but when paired with dusty pink, lime green or eclectic blue colors, it creates a perfect harmony.

Ultimate Grey

Illuminating Yellow

Another color chosen by Pantone alongside Ultimate Grey is Illuminating Yellow. Why you may ask? Well, it makes perfect sense. Illuminating Yellow is associated with happiness and warmth, something to look forward to in the current year.

Epoch

Graham & Brown describe Epoch as a 'directional shade of plum', and we are absolutely in love with it! When you look at Epoch, the first few things that come to mind are luxury and sophistication. Who doesn't want their homes to be described like that?

We are firm believers that when it comes to furnishing and decorating our bedrooms, we should approach it with carefulness. After all, it's a place where we feel the most vulnerable. Everything from the color scheme, textures, to materials should create a sense of tranquility. Shop our Bedroom Collection to create your own dreamy oasis.
