BLACK TEA

PREMIER

BIG RED ROSE (DA HONG POU)
MOUNT WUYI, FUXIAN PROVINCE, CHINA
Legend has it that this smoky tea from the cliffs of Mt. Wuyi was the only remedy for an emperor’s bed-ridden daughter.

IRON GODDESS (TIE GUI YIN)
ANJI COUNTY, FUXIAN PROVINCE, CHINA
Our beloved “chameleon of tea” starts off dark and smoky, and ends with a peachy, subtly acidic finish.

KING’S TEA
NANTOU COUNTY, TAIWAN
This oolong tea undergoes a long, carefree dark roast and is finished with a touch of gingko extract.

RESERVE

ORIENTAL BEAUTY (DONG FENG MEI DEM)
HSINCHU COUNTY, TAIWAN
Leafhopper bugs are purposely allowed to feed on tea bushes, resulting in a dark roast oolong tea with a honey-like sweetness.

RED WATER (HONG SHUI)
LSU TOWNSHIP, NANTOU COUNTY, TAIWAN
Custom-roasted by an award-winning producer using tender high mountain tea leaves, this dark roast oolong is a perfect harmony of sweet and smoky flavor notes, with a slightly chocolate-y finish.

SELECT

GOLDEN OSMANTHUS
NANTOU COUNTY, TAIWAN
This aromatic oolong tea is created by blending fragrant osmanthus flowers with a sweet Taiwanese oolong. The resulting flavor is well-rounded, with the osmanthus providing a crisp finish.

BAOSHANQING
PINLIN DISTRICT, TAIWAN
This Baoshan is a very lightly oxidized oolong tea from the lush hillsides surrounding Taipei City. The twisted, vibrant green leaves give way to a crisp, sweet taste and an elegant, floral finish.

RESERVE

ALISHAN
ALISHAN TOWNSHIP, CHIAYI COUNTY, TAIWAN
Alishan is famous for both beautiful scenery and exquisite high mountain oolong teas. This tea’s refreshing flavor showcases tropical hints of papaya and pineapple, with a floral finish.

MATCHA

CEREMONIAL MATCHA (PREMIER)
WAKUI, HIROSHIMA PREFECTURE, JAPAN
Made from tender buds that are carefully grown under granite mills, our premier ceremonial matcha is clean, crisp, and remarkably balanced.

IMPERIAL MATCHA
UJI, KYOTO PREFECTURE, JAPAN
Our highest grade matcha is milled from hand-gathered, early Spring harvest leaves. This is a true special occasion tea that is full of character and excitement—savoury, sweet, crisp, and delectable.

Six weeks of shading produce tea leaves with more concentrated amino acids; these leaves are then finely ground into a bright green powder with rich & savory flavors.

GREEN TEA

SELECT

SENMAICHA
KAGOSHIMA PREFECTURE, JAPAN
Ginmais, Japanese for “brown rice,” is combined with a subtle green tea to create Senmaicha. The flavor is smooth and hearty, with heavy undertones of freshly-toasted bread and popcorn.

MISTY PEAK (YUN WU)
GUI ZHOU PROVINCE, CHINA
Guizhou is a mountainous rural province inhabited largely by ethnic minorities. Because it remains undisturbed by the forces of modernization, its idyllic terriror produces a wonderfully crisp green tea.

RESERVE

JASMINE PEARLS
FUJIAN PROVINCE, CHINA
Jasmine flowers bloom in late summer, permeating a heavenly smell through the air. Admire the tiny pearls as they slowly unfurl, and revel in the delicate flavor and persistent jasmine aroma of this green tea.

WHITE TEA

WHITE PEONY (DAO MU DAO)
FUJIAN PROVINCE, CHINA
Organically-grown tea leaves are plucked using a one bud two leaf standard, then air-dried for 30 hours, yielding a tea with a crisp body with notes of rock sugar, almond and apple.

RESERVE

SILVER NEEDLE (DAO HAO FEN ZHEN)
FUJIAN PROVINCE, CHINA
This luxurious white tea is comprised exclusively of tender buds. Its remarkably pure flavor is reminiscent of fresh glacier water, and is rounded out with crisp hints of apple and pear.

Gentle processing ensures gradual oxidation of the tea leaf, resulting in delicate tea with refreshing flavors.
