BHGspecials™

1. One of the sharpest helpers in the shed, the hori hori gardening tool is a combination twine cutter, knife, trowel, and saw. This indispensable multitasker will streamline fall chores. Hori Hori Classic, $30; barebonesliving.com

2. Settle in with this bookbinding kit and create a one-of-a-kind journal to fill with sketches, paintings, or musings. Kit includes paper, needle, thread, and instructions to make one 4-inch book. Anselm Bookbinding Kit, $22; pegandawebuilt.com

3. These notes can weather the weather! A tough water-resistant material helps your message stay clear and easy to see while a super-sticky backing adheres to almost any surface. Post-It Extreme Notes, $5; post-it.com

4. Do good for the environment while enjoying a beautiful outdoor space. These bricklike pavers are 95 percent recycled material and lay atop a flexible grid system for quick install. Available in five colors. Azek Pavers, $8-$10 per square foot; azek.com
