

YOUR "HERO KIT"

You know the lipstick that always does the trick when you dig it out of your purse for a touch-up? I do. There are products I literally can't live without and I call that collection my "hero kit." My loyalty to these exceptional items is so deep that I buy them in bulk and divvy them up for at-home use, on-the-go touch-ups, and travel. I probably own a half-dozen NARS Orgasm blushes—and I'm okay with that.

SKYN ICELAND EYE GELS: I never get dressed for an event without applying these patches first. They have a cooling effect and dissolve any puffiness. Wear them for ten minutes and you'll look like you slept for an extra hour. Fashion Week essential!
