BIO GRA PHY

A former track star and gymnast, Peoria, Illinois-born Liv Warfield began building her legend, in of all places, Portland, Oregon. Despite having no formal background in singing, she gained the respect of local superstars and became an icon in her own right.

While she takes cues from musical influences like Nina Simone, Etta James, Mavis Staples, Sade, Tina Turner, and Mary J. Blige, Warfield has carved out a style all her own, which can best be described as "alternative soul with a lil bit of Rock 'n' Roll." In 2006, she self-released her debut album "Embrace Me." By 2009, she caught the eye of the one-and-only Prince and ultimately joined his group the "New Power Generation."

After touring for several years and soaking up as much knowledge as she could from the ultimate music mentor, Warfield made her big splash on the national scene in 2014, first as a featured artist for Vh1's "You Oughta Know" campaign, and then with the release of her major label debut album "The Unexpected," which was executive produced by Prince. What followed were show-stopping performances on "The Tonight Show Starring Jimmy Fallon," "The Late Show with David Letterman," and "The Arsenio Hall Show;" a 2014 Soul Train Music Award and nominations for two others; a BET Best New Artist Award nomination; an interview with National Public Radio; and high-profile cosigns from Lionel Richie, Cyndi Lauper, and Nancy Wilson of HEART. That same year, Warfield's performance closing out Essence Fest was hailed as one of the most memorable after shows at the New Orleans House of Blues. In 2015, the accolades only kept growing, with Warfield and the NPG Hornz being named one of the top 10 bands to see at the Montreux Jazz Festival in Switzerland. It's no wonder she has left celebrities like Letterman declaring it's time to "cancel show business!"

In 2017, Warfield began the next phase of her ascension, collaborating with another one of her childhood influences, the aforementioned Nancy Wilson, to create the band Roadcase Royale. Their lead single "Get Loud" was featured prominently in the 2017 Women's March and they released their debut album "First Things First" later that year. If that weren't enough, their remake of HEART's "These Dreams" was featured in the film "Molly's Game," which starred Idris Elba, Jessica Chastain, and Kevin Costner. Warfield recently recorded music for the Oscar-nominated HBO documentary Da Bronx. She also tipped her hat into the theater realm, to rave reviews playing Madame ZinZanni in the Chicago version of Teatro ZinZanni. It's now 2022. LiV has graced sold out stages from Europe to New York's famous Café Wha? Get ready, because the energy and music doesn't stop there. Her long awaited third album "Olivia" will be worth the wait. Coming 2023.

Prince helps soul singer Liv Warfield bring out 'The Unexpected.' She headlines the Howard Theatre on Sunday.

//THE WASHINGTON POST

Liv Warfield, 'The Unexpected'

//THE BOSTON GLOBE

"I absolutely think Liv Warfield is in her own lane. Especially now - there's hints of Tina Turner and Betty Davis - for Black female singers, there's not that hard-hitting music with the guitars and horns, and fierce vocals. It's nasty but the soul is still in it. It's a vacant lane and she seems to be one of the few people that's driving in it."

//Q. PETERSON, LIFE + TIMES

"Liv Warfield's 'The Unexpected' is a riveting ride that shatters stylistic boundaries. Prince's latest protege has monster pipes and a masterful command of song. Make no mistake, she's a major star on the rise."
//JON REGEN, KEYBOARD

"Liv Warfield...holy crap! Unreal...You've never seen another woman do this... A voice that you can't imagine."
