

~THE @HBCUALUM SCHOLARSHIP~

Book Scholarship Application

Essay Topic:

The Importance of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCU's) in the 21st Century

The @HBCUALUM Scholarship Committee will award multiple book scholarships valued at $500.00 to Graduating Seniors planning to enroll in an Historically Black College or University (HBCU) in the Fall of 2021. Applicants must write an original essay based on the displayed topic, complete the application form below, and meet other eligibility requirements as outlined. Please electronically type or write requested information below to submit for consideration.

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Full Name (First, Middle, Last) _____

Home Address _____

City _____

State _____

Zip Code _____

Phone _____

E-mail _____

Cell Phone _____

EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND, SCHOOL & COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

College of Choice _____

Aspiring College Major _____

Cumulative High School G.P.A. _____

High School & Community Involvement (please include: offices held, honors, varsity sports played, awards, etc.)

Signature of Applicant _____

Email of Guidance Counselor _____

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Must be a Graduating Senior enrolled in High School
- Plan to enroll at an HBCU in the Fall of 2021
- Must have a cumulative G.P.A. of 3.0 or higher (4.0 scale)
- Submit an essay on "The Importance of HBCU's in the 21st Century" (500 word min)

Application Located at: thehbcualum.com

Please submit completed Application & Essay to: thehbcualum@gmail.com

SUBMISSION DEADLINE: April 1, 2021
WINNERS ANNOUNCED: April 15, 2021

INFORMATION ABOUT THE @HBCUALUM SCHOLARSHIP

Terrence G. Caldwell and Alex J. Shuler, alumni of Tennessee State University, established their first HBCU Book Scholarship in 2009. It's goal then and still today, is to help encourage talented students to consider HBCU's as a viable choice for higher education.