Shop for your Charity

Dear friends,

It takes a great team to save lives at sea. Thank you for being part of the crew, and sending your very generous gift of $5.00. Your donation receipt is enclosed.

For many of us, weekends are a time for family, relaxing and taking a break. Many Kiwis head out on the water to make the most of their leisure time and our Coastguard volunteers, many of whom have day jobs, are no different. But at any time, and on any day of the week, no matter what they're doing, our volunteers will drop everything to help someone in trouble.

Your donation of $5.00 will keep our volunteer crews trained and equip ready for the next emergency in your community.

Your organisation makes it possible for us to be there, making life-saving decisions, anytime and anywhere when trouble arises.

Thank you for creating second chances and saving lives at sea.

Yours sincerely,

Callum Gillespie
