2023

The Dubarry Aquatech Clothing & Footwear Collection has been specifically designed for use across a wide variety of nautical environments. At the core of this collection are a number of key performance characteristics that bring many important benefits to the wearer. The clothing collection contains many protective features ranging from UPF sun protection, wind and water resistance to highly breathable performance. There are many practical attributes such as anti-odour, moisture wicking, quick dry and even a hidden removable eyewear cleaning cloth on most styles. The Clothing Collection will see some additional jacket and fleece styles as well as new polos and t-shirts.

2023 sees some additions to our Performance Footwear collection with a gaitered Sailing Boot and some colour ups to the Technical Trainers. These contain all the key performance features that you would expect from Dubarry's heritage dating back to 1937. The NonSlip-NonMarking™ rubber outsole delivers sure-footedness on all deck surfaces and coupled with the lightweight EVA midsole offers exceptional underfoot comfort. Footbeds are removable with anti-odour and antimicrobial protection added to improve breathability. Waterproof performance is available on selected styles.

There are also some new additions to our bags & accessory collection with a new navigators bag, a wash bag and a handy towel. Practical and hard-wearing, they have plenty of space for kit and useful features including padded laptop/tablet pockets and a breathable mesh padded back system that provides air circulation to help keep you comfortable and dry. The headwear collection now has a warm and cosy fleece-lined beanie and a lightweight visor to not only provide protection from the sun, but that also helps wick away sweat with a microfibre lining inside the adjustable headband. Our technical socks, made using PrimaLoft® will help keep your feet comfortable, in all conditions.
