

ART OF THE MASTERS PROGRAM

PRESENTS THE LIFE & WORK OF

Mary Cassatt

> For the month of May, we present the life and work of one of the most famous American born and female Impressionist painters, Mary Cassatt. She loved to paint scenes of the Mother-Child relationship and was not only known for her remarkable paintings but also for her use of pastels.

> During our hands-on session, participants will have the opportunity to discover the technique of painting with pastels. Afterwards, all paintings will be put assembled to create a contemporary Mother and child portrait. Please come join us for this fun & exciting workshop!
