

ART OF THE MASTERS PROGRAM
PRESENTS THE LIFE & WORK OF
Pierre-Auguste Renoir

› During the 1870s, a revolution erupted in French painting. During this time a number of young painters including Pierre-Auguste Renoir, began to seek alternatives to the traditions of Western painting that had prevailed since the beginning of the Renaissance. These artists went directly to nature for their inspiration and into the actual society of which they were a part of. As a result, their works were filled with energy, vibrant light and bright colors. These qualities, among others, signaled the beginning of the impressionist movement.

› During our hands-on session, participants will have the opportunity to choose their favorite still life sketch and bring it to life their own way using watercolors. Afterwards, artwork will be signed and framed for all to enjoy. We truly look forward to seeing you there!
