

janegee®

The skin is the largest organ of absorption and elimination in the body. The skin responds best to botanical ingredients, which offer the benefits of millions of years of biological familiarity and a chemical complexity that can't be duplicated outside of nature.

Herbs and their essential oils provide more than a pleasant fragrance; they are effective remedies for an array of skin conditions such as rosacea, acne, sun damage, eczema, dry skin, rashes, wounds, and ulcers.

janegee products are developed from natural ingredients and include a natural preservation system. Jane has been working with the vibrancy of botanicals for over 30 years. She is considered an expert with clean, green beauty and solving the mysteries of skin issues.

janegee believes in integrating healing foods along with other lifestyle do's and don'ts to maximize health and wellness and keep your own skin and body healthy, providing a graceful path to aging and living well.
