

Green Tree Frogs

Sandra Kendell

ISBN: 9781922081421

Imprint: Windy Hollow Books

Binding: Hardcover

Pages: 32

Dimensions:

Category: Children's

Release Date: 01/03/2015

RRP: $25.95

Each year monsoonal rains sweep across the Top End and the green tree frogs clamber from their hiding places to feed, breed and sing! 'Green Tree Frogs' is an affectionate celebration of these cheeky characters and of life in the wet season. It also provides an entertaining insight into the amphibious life cycle.

AUTHOR:

Sandra lives in Darwin, The Northern Territory with her partner and two girls and works in her studio under their troppo house making pictures with oils, mixed media and digital montage to tell stories. She draws inspiration from the local environment and ecology. Sandra is the author of 'Quoll' and 'The Bushwalk', 'Welcome Little Scrubfowl' and has illustrated 'Surprise for Dingo', all published by Windy Hollow Books. NSW Premier Barry O'Farrell recently presented 'The Bushwalk' to Princess Mary of Denmark as a gift for the royal twins.

AGES:

SELLING POINTS:

- Australiana
- Green Tree Frogs are very popular
- Sandra has established a reputation as a notable author and illustrator in this genre
- Accessible non-fiction for lower primary
- Information page included which gives the book more substance
- Teacher's Notes available

REVIEWS

Praise for Sandra's other books

"The artwork is the highlight of the book - colours aplenty, action and movement and really unique interpretations of the Australian bush." - Kid's book Review

"From the beautiful shadowed illustrations on the fly pages to the vibrant, and eye-catching covers, every part of this book including the prose, is perfectly presented. The soft watercolour illustrations create a background of harmony and fluidity between the text and artwork." - Buzzwords

