

Designer Sheila Bridges in the living area of her country home in New York's Hudson Valley. The vintage chair is by Ernst Schwadron, the stool is by Grosfeld House, and the artwork (right) is by Kyle Meyer. OPPOSITE: The Louis XV and Biedermeier chairs in the dining area are antique, and the Fornasetti chairs are vintage; the lamps are from Stair Galleries, the window shades are of a Gastón y Daniela fabric, and the photograph (center) is by Fabiola Jean-Louis.

FOR HER NEW HOME IN UPSTATE NEW YORK, ED A-LIST DESIGNER SHEILA BRIDGES HAS CREATED A LIGHT-FILLED SANCTUARY OF MEANING AND MEMORIES.

BY VERONICA CHAMBERS

PRODUCED BY CHARLES CURKIN
PHOTOGRAPHS BY FRANK FRANCES

STYLED BY OLGA NAIMAN