Thornbury

NEW ZEALAND

Marlborough Sauvignon Blanc 2018

THE VINEYARD:

The two largest sub-regions in New Zealand - Marlborough's Wairau and Awatere Valleys sit side by side and produce the world's most distinctive Sauvignon Blancs. A blend of 53% was grown in the Wairau Valley which provides richness and weight along with 47% coming from the cooler Awatere Valley which is famous for its finesse and minerality.

WINEMAKING:

Cool fermented in stainless steel tanks using aromatic yeasts. The wine spent time on its yeast lees to lend extra texture and weight.
