SOME OF OUR WONDERFUL PARTNERS

I had a wonderful experience ordering corporate gifts with KADOO! Our project was not the easiest, given we were shipping out to international recipients but the folks at KADOO were well-versed with how to ship to different countries. The entire presentation of the box from the furoshiki wrap to the custom tags to the thoughtfully-curated contents really wow-ed my team members. I would highly recommend KADOO for gifting needs!

ELLEN B., PINTEREST

What a great experience! The team at Kadoo went above and beyond to ensure everything was perfect! They pulled together a bespoke gift package for several clients I was hosting from Japan. During the process they took the time to understand my requirements and the attention to detail was amazing. They were extremely responsive and even took the time to meet me in the city to deliver the gifts. Wow! Can't wait to work with them again!!

JORGE V., GOOGLE CLOUD

Beautiful gifts and amazing to work with! Highly recommended for corporates gifting. They are very creative and the process of planning was a pleasure to do so with them.

DANIELLE S., HBO

JILLIAN R., AESOP

Yudhisty helped us arrange our corporate client gifts this holiday season, and they were fantastic at communicating everything to us and were very timely. They even have a service for mailing out these packages directly to international clients! I do not have anything negative to say - thank you so much for your help!

ALTHEA A., STINSON

I have worked with multiple gifting partners in the past, but none compare to the quality of KADOO. Juanita and Yudhisty are such a pleasure to work with. After a series of intro conversations, they understood our brand and provided me with thoughtfully curated options - it was hard to choose just one. They sourced local products with an emphasis on sustainability which is really important for my company. They delivered the gifts to our NYC venue right on time for our C-level recipients. I highly recommend KADOO and will definitely be using them again!

KARINA V., DATAIKU

These gift boxes are beyond beautiful! Everything is curated to make the box feel special. The wrapping is a nice touch. It looks so elegant and also love that you can reuse the fabric for other things.

They also work with you to customize or if you have any one-off requests. We have used KADOO for business where we included custom items in the box. They are the most responsive and accommodating team I've worked with and incredibly creative.
