This could result in an unsafe fit for my handgun and possible negligent discharge. Alterations made to my WEAPON EYE™ system could also result in WEAPON EYE™ system not recording or recording improperly. I acknowledge that ATLAS PILOT LLC assumes no liability for any wrong use of the recorded material, uploaded video or and audio to any internet site and/or place or the distribution of the recorded material by any media, nor any person, personality, or people affected by the recorded material.

I acknowledge that ATLAS PILOT LLC assumes no liability for any injuries caused by the laser or the flashlight to the user or any other third party, for example pointing at any human eye or animal eye with the laser or the flashlight.

I acknowledge that for information on how to safely carry my particular handgun, I will refer to my handgun manufacturer's safety and instruction manual.

I acknowledge that ATLAS PILOT LLC assumes no liability for carrying any handgun with a live cartridge in the chamber immediately in front of the firing pin may cause negligent discharge. Single action revolvers and some semi-automatic pistols should be carried with the hammer or firing pin resting on an empty chamber. It is my responsibility to exercise extreme caution when handling or carrying any handgun and to assume at all times that the gun is loaded. I will not attempt to cock a handgun while WEAPON EYE™ is in the holster. Cocking the handgun while holstered can cause damage to the holster, gun, or both and may cause negligent discharge.

I acknowledge that I must be certain that my gun is securely seated in the holster each time I holster my firearm before removing my hand from the grip. Firearms must snugly fit in holsters to guard against accidental loss of the handgun. However, a snug fit may cause the slide to go out of battery when holstering. Therefore, I should always place my thumb on the back of the slide to insure that the slide does not go out of battery while holstering. I will never place my hand in front of the firearm barrel while trying to holster or un-holster my firearm.

I acknowledge that I will always make sure my gun is fully seated in the holster. During vigorous physical activity, including running, I should not rely on my holster's retention capabilities; the gun should be held in place with my hand to prevent the gun from falling out of the holster.

I acknowledge that I understand that ATLAS PILOT LLC has no control over the firearm I use, the ammunition I carry and/or use of such item(s) in the firearm, the manner in which I use the WEAPON EYE™ system, or in any modification that I make in the future to the WEAPON EYE™ system. Therefore, I acknowledge that ATLAS PILOT LLC disclaims any and all liability for any damages, personal and/or to property, that may result from the use of this WEAPON EYE™ system.
