Introducing our newest iridescent glaze — Azurite!

Step Vase, $196
Azurite

The Step Vase in Azurite along with several reintroduced tiles from our archives will feature this special commemorative stamp in honor of our 120th.

Our Summer Collection is inspired by Pewabic's 120-year legacy of handcrafting ceramics in Detroit. Co-founder Mary Chase Perry Stratton was deeply passionate about developing new glazes — a tradition we proudly carry on to this day. The Step Vase in our newest iridescent glaze, Azurite, celebrates that legacy and this milestone anniversary. We hope these timeless pieces bring joy into your home.
Vases like these were popular during Pewabic’s earliest years. Originally produced in flowing matte green and yellow glazes, these vases from our Heritage Collection are shown here in Birch.

This floral design hearkens back to several Pewabic tile fountain and medallion installations from the 1920s. It is pictured here against historic water fountain tiles currently on display in our second-floor museum. This tiled segment was recovered from Northern High School in Detroit.
