

EASTER FEASTING IDEAS

Poached Eggs in a Nest with crème fraîche & caviar.

6 eggs, 200ml crème fraîche, salmon caviar, iceberg lettuce, 2 tbsp white vinegar, 1 tsp salt, 1 tsp sweet paprika, ½ tsp flaked salt, 3 tsps lemon juice.

Poach eggs in simmering water with vinegar and salt. Drain and refrigerate. Mix crème fraîche, paprika, flaked salt and lemon juice, chill.

Place the eggs on a bed of shredded iceberg, either in individual dishes or one large serving platter. Divide spiced crème into six and blanket each egg. Top with caviar. Serve chilled with crusty baguette or sourdough.

Chocolate Ice Cream Brownie Sandwich

Inspired by Fiona Hammond, Torello Farm

1 Phillippa's Chocolate Brownie (any) refrigerated. 1 cup quality vanilla ice cream, slightly softened.

With a hot bread knife and a sawing motion cut the brownie in half, horizontally. Slide the cake board supplied between the slices to remove the top. Use a knife to spread ice cream on the base layer. Replace the top piece. Slide the cake board out and return it to under the base. Wrap in baking paper and refreeze for 1 hour minimum. Cut into bite size pieces with a hot bread knife and serve.

HOT CROSS BUNS

VINE-FRUIT WITH OUR OWN CANDIED PEEL Box of 6

A chewy, moist, pert, aromatic bun made with vine-fruit, minimal yeast, slow fermentation, premium fresh spices and house made candied peel from unwaxed oranges sourced at the farmers' market, finished with a shiny glaze. Enjoy with COLD butter or toasted and fill the kitchen with delicious aromas!

Phillippa's Fun Facts

Considered a luxury (made with fruit and spices), the Hot Crossed Bun celebrates the end of the Lenten fasting period. Our modern recipe is attributed to a 14th-century monk who baked them for the poor on Good Friday. In 1582 London, the Hot Cross Bun was temporarily banned as they were believed to have supernatural qualities, along the lines of warding off evil and curing illnesses. 10 years later, Queen Elizabeth 1st banned them entirely, unless for special occasions: Christmas, funerals and, of course, Good Friday.

FESTIVE BISCUITS

CHOCOLATE VANILLA BUNNIES Lemon Glaze, Packet

Made with Dutch cocoa and real vanilla, these crunchy, aromatic biscuits with a tangy lemon glaze will be enjoyed by big and little kids.

Dress up your Easter feasting table by tying a thin ribbon around their necks!

Belgian Double Chocolate Chip Cookies, Packet

We've expressed our love for good Belgian chocolate and Dutch cocoa in this intense melt-in-the-mouth chocolate biscuit treat. Ideal for making ice cream sandwiches.

HONEY BUNNIES, Packet

The Australian honey and freshly ground ginger in these crunchy ever-popular biscuits leave a warm lingering taste.
