Introduction...

“Before I tell you today's story, I need to tell you something. In today's story there are angels. God uses angels to tell people things. God used angels to tell Mary and Joseph about God's son, Jesus. Today's story is a true story from God's book, the Bible.”

Story...

“This is a true story in God’s book, the Bible.
A long time ago there was a lady called Mary.
An angel told Mary that she would have a baby boy—
God’s son, Jesus.

An angel spoke to a man called Joseph too.
The angel said that Mary and Joseph would have a baby boy—
God’s son, Jesus.

The most special,
the most important baby
would be born—
God’s son, Jesus.”

Pray...

“Thank you God for your son, Jesus. Amen.”

Activity suggestions...

1. Paper bag puppet

Guidelines for making this activity are on page 53. In the lesson, first show the children a completed activity. Place a paper bag in front of each child, with the opening at the lower edge. On one side the children make an angel following the guidelines on page 53. On the other side the children make Mary. This activity will require close teacher direction in systematically pasting on the pieces in the right place.

2. Booklet

Print page 54 and fold horizontally and then vertically to make a booklet. ‘The angel told’ is the first page. In the lesson, the children could ‘colour’ it in or take it home in black and white.

3. Softdrink bottle Joseph

Each child will need a 1.25 or 1.5 litre softdrink bottle for this lesson. Before the lesson, print page 55 for each child and print and cut out Joseph’s head (on page 51) for each child. In the lesson, place page 55 in front of each child. The children colour (scribble!) Joseph’s clothes. Once completed, the teacher wraps page 55 around the softdrink bottle and secures with tape, and then attaches Joseph’s face with blu-tack or tape.

4. Story card

Print page 52 for each child to ‘colour’.
