

CODE OF CONDUCT

Lasham Gliding Society is fully committed to safeguarding the wellbeing of its members, visitors and staff. Every individual in the Club should, at all times, show respect and understanding for the rights, safety and welfare of others (at the Club), and conduct themselves in a way that reflects these principles.

All members and staff are committed to a code of conduct which reflects these principles as follows:

Club members, their guests, staff and visitors to the club are entitled to expect courtesy, consideration and to be able to operate within a culture of safety. The development and maintenance of such a safety culture relies on everyone being able to trust one another, and for each person to show consideration and to have a duty of care for fellow participants. To this end, the Club Management Committee expects certain minimum standards of behaviour from Club members, their guests, staff and visitors to the Club. This includes a responsibility for all Club members, their guests, staff and visitors, to bring to the attention of any Club official any situation which is believed to constitute a hazard, so that adequate mitigation can be applied, or risk of exposure to the hazard can be removed.
