

Note & quickly refer back to appointments and important tasks with icon and label stickers

Structure your weekly layout into categories or sections with header stickers

Weekend banners & sticky notes stickers add creativity and functionality

Stay on top of habits and track progress with habit tracker stickers

The planner spread shows a weekly layout from Monday, April 29, to Sunday, May 5. Each day's column includes a 'TODAY' section for appointments and a 'TO DO' section for tasks. At the bottom, there are rows for routines and automated tasks. A 'WEEKEND' banner spans Saturday and Sunday. On the right side, there are 'DAILY HABITS' and 'NOTES' sections. Various stickers are used throughout, including icons for appointments, to-do items, and routines.

Mini hexagon & checklist flag to create to-do lists. Adding structure to your weekly spread

Use functional shape stickers to block off time for longer events or highlight important tasks. Layer, stamp or write on them

Use icon stickers to easily map out routines and note automated tasks

Add fun and motivation with quote stickers

Why You Need Planner Stickers

