mala beads

Mala beads are mysterious and magical necklaces or meditation garlands that have been worn for thousands of years by yogis and spiritual seekers from all over the world.

We hand make our mala beads using sacred materials + gemstones that we source ethically from spiritual places like Bali, Indonesia, Nepal and India. By fusing our mala beads with healing crystals and gemstones we are able to give each mala it's own intention and unique meaning.

In addition to our traditional mala necklaces, we also create wrist malas or stacks, which can be worn during yoga.

scarves + apparel

Inspired by the beautiful places we've traveled to, our scarves are luxurious and bohemian additions to any wardrobe. We also carry a high-end apparel line and are in the midst of expanding our intentional lifestyle products.

intentional jewelry

Designed for goddesses on-the-go, our intentional jewelry features a variety of gold, silver and metallic necklaces and bracelets that have been fused with gemstones and healing crystals.

Each piece comes with it's own intention and meaning based on the energetic properties of the gemstone it's been fused with.
