Demi Lovato and Nick Jonas celebrated her new song "Cool For The Summer" on Friday with gold cigars. See photo right and video below.

As Gossip Cop reported, "Cool For The Summer" premiered earlier this week, and it's since gone to number one on iTunes. Lovato has been hosting launch parties in different cities, including New York, Miami, and Atlanta. She traveled to Chicago on Friday, where she met up with Jonas for another bash.

Jonas first hinted to his appearance at Lovato's shindig on Thursday, when he tweeted, "Yo @ddlovato these pool parties look sick... Cool if I swing through Chicago tomorrow?" She enthusiastically replied, "HELL YESSS!!!" Jonas ended up catching a 5 a.m. flight Friday to make the trip.

And, in the hours before, Lovato teased on Twitter, "Chicago!!! Come get #CoolForTheSummer with me tmrw 12-2 at Castaways on North Ave Beach!!! There miggght be a @nickjonas cameo too." Well, Jonas showed, and they partied with 24 karat gold cigars. The gift for Lovato, which costs around $200 and can be smoked, came from Daniel Marshall, which is known for its "Ultimate Celebration 24kt Golden Cigar."

In sharing the pic on Instagram, Jonas wrote, "Celebrating @ddlovato number 1 with @dmcigars 24k gold cigars. #coolforthesummer." And Lovato tweeted, "Nothing like one of your business partners/best friends showing up to support you!!!" As Gossip Cop reported, the two performers started a record label together last month.

Lovato revealed her love of cigars earlier this week. In an interview with Z100, the singer said, "I'll smoke cigars every now and then on special occasions. But no drinking, no drugs." She said she particularly likes how they make people "sexy," noting, "Especially when you're a girl and you're holding it and people are looking at you like you're a boss."
