GUIDELINES FOR TEACHERS:

This book contains 45 different occupations in humorous cartoon pictures.

Each picture is on A4 size - one per sheet OR print the A5 size - 2 pictures on 1 x A4 sheet.

PRINT ONLY THE SIZE YOU NEED.

The instructions are in English but the pictures can be used to teach in ANY LANGUAGE.

Ideas on ways to use this resource:

- * Picture comprehension: use the pictures to ask questions. This can be written or oral and in any language.
- * Stimulate discussion about the occupation and how the people are feeling in the pictures and what they could be saying to each other.
- * Teach vocabulary in any language.
- * Creative or descriptive writing; fact or fiction; paragraphs; letters; stories; predictions; poetry and direct and indirect speech.
- * Classifying: learners can group the pictures according to specific characteristics.
- * Prepared or unprepared speech.
- * Following instructions: give the learners instructions, e.g. Colour the shirt blue, the hair black, draw or add something to the picture, etc.

Parts of Speech- discuss different parts of speech "visible" in the pictures, e.g. nouns, verbs, adjectives, adverbs, etc.

- * Let learners colour the pictures - give each learner a different picture and then mount them on board (or laminate them) and use them as charts on your wall when you are teaching about jobs people do. (Careers, occupations.)
