

DRY SKINCARE GUIDE

NATURAL & ORGANIC
SKINCARE RECOMMENDATIONS FOR YOU

ABOUT YOUR SKIN TYPE

Dry skin struggles to retain moisture which can be caused by under active sebum production and surface exfoliation as well as environmental factors like extreme cold or heat. You might notice thin texture, flaking and dehydration lines on the skin

Focussing on keeping the skin protected from moisture loss as well as boosting moisture levels within the skin is key for dry skin types

We've chosen products that are formulated for dry skin types that will keep your skin hydrated, soft and radiant and are loved by our customers with a dry skin type
