Information: Returns & Exchanges

We do not offer a return label, return shipping is covered by you. We recommend shipping as an insured package with tracking information. Please keep the shipping receipt until the process is complete. When returning products, please make sure that they are in their original packaging and protected in the same way as you received them from us. The refund of the returned products will be made within a few days after successful inspection. In case of an exchange, the shipping costs back to you will be covered by William Walker.
