

Production Associate Job description

If you've been looking for an exciting opportunity to get in at the ground level of a rapidly growing business in the cannabis/CBD industry, then Dad Grass would love to hear from you! We are looking for a quality minded, hard working person to join our expanding production team in DTLA. While this is an entry-level position, we are looking for individuals with the skills and drive to promote into higher-level roles in the near future.

Role + Responsibilities

Duties of this position include but are not limited to the following:

- Production and light manufacturing of our Hemp CBD/CBG finished goods and associated packaging
- Producing finished goods that meet Dad Grass quality standards while maintaining required output KPI's
- Operating light machinery
- Maintaining an organized and clean work environment
- Completing all required production logs and paperwork accurately
- Supporting your production and fulfillment teammates, as needed, to meet shared goals

Qualifications:

- A great attitude and willingness to learn
- Detail oriented, organized, and quality minded
- Takes direction easily but is not afraid to ask questions
- Works well with and is mindful of others
- A desire to work as part of a passionate team to meet production goals
- Reliable transportation

- Ability to work in a fast paced, repetitive atmosphere
- Able to sit or stand for extended periods of time
- Basic mathematical skills
- Ability to lift up to 50lbs
- Experience/knowledge of cannabis/CBD industry a plus but not required
- High School Diploma or GED

Salary: Starting at $16/hr DOE with opportunities for advancement

Job Type: 40 hours per week/Full-time

Benefits:

- 401(k)

Schedule:

- 8 hour shift

Education:

- High school or equivalent (Preferred)

Work Location: In person